Why Study the Northwest Foothills?

- The area has experienced a considerable number of development applications for privately owned property.

- Provisions have been made in the City of Eagle and Ada County Comprehensive Plans for future growth in this area.

- Studying the area today allows the opportunity to plan for roadways before development occurs.