

Permeable Pavers

Permeable pavers reduce polluted stormwater and help eliminate standing water.

The system is composed of concrete or fired clay brick pavers that are separated by gravel. The gravel between the pavers serves as a sustainable filtration system, pulling silt and debris out of polluted runoff that drains from parking lots and roofs.

How the System Works

